1939

Central Catholic High School

Published four times a year, December, February, April, and June, by the Students of Central Catholic High School, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Entered as Second Class Matter, December 15, 1919, at the Post Office at Fort Wayne, Indiana, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Volume 25

June, 1939

No. 1, 2, 3, 4

"It will not satisfy me, what satisfies so many, to have two independent systems, intellectual and religious, going at once side by side, by a sort of division of labour, and only accidentally brought together. It will not satisfy me, if religion is here, and science there, and young men converse with science all day, and lodge with religion in the evening. . . . I wish the intellect to range with the utmost freedom, and religion to enjoy an equal freedom, but what I am stipulating is, that they should be found in one and the same place, and exemplified in the same persons."

The Christ of Lewis Street

Over the highway, over the road,
Such as He in Jerusalem trod,
Guarding the people of our town,
The Christ of Lewis Street looks down.

Over believer and atheist,
Scoffer, too, and communist—
Every one of whom He knows
And for whom His great heart glows—
The Christ of Lewis Street looks down.

Crowds here gather, crowds disperse
'Neath the Lord of the Universe;
Rain nor sunshine, cold nor sleet—
Naught e'er stops the beating feet.
Sleeping never,
Watching ever,
Stands the guardian of our town;
The Christ of Lewis Street looks down.

Spiritual Activities

Under the supervision of our Spiritual Adviser, Father Murphy, our religious curriculum has been well rounded out. Spiritual guidance has been diligently prepared, effectively presented, and gratefully received. We have enjoyed Father Murphy's daily talks over the loud speaker, and feel that we have greatly benefited by them. The interest of the students is kept alive by the variety of the topics given. The instructions have included such subjects as our heritage as children of God, the correct attitude towards our neighbor, and many other pertinent selections.

For the month of May, Father Murphy assigned to individual seniors a three-minute talk on the titles of Our Blessed Mother, these talks to be given over the loud speaker. On the first floor a beautiful shrine of silver and blue was erected to Our Lady. A petition box was placed at the foot of the Blessed Virgin's statue for special intentions. It was not an infrequent sight to find students throughout the day kneeling there, absorbed in a heart-to-heart talk with Mary.

Each Monday morning we were granted a late assembly to enable us to attend Mass and to receive Holy Communion. On these mornings our convocation was given at the end of the first period. On the First Friday of each month Sacred Heart devotions were conducted for us in the Cathedral. These devotions included prayers, sermon, and Benediction. Very often at these services our beloved Bishop spoke to us, and gave us further guidance in the direction of our salvation.

In our recent retreat, the students of the first three years were instructed by Father Murphy; and the Seniors, by Bishop Noll. It was a privilege, indeed, to listen to the practical talks given by our Bishop, who, during these days, devoted so much of his time to helping us spiritually. An annual retreat has always been considered an important event in a Catholic high school. Certainly ours was the finest that effort and time could produce.

A lecture given by Mr. Craig of the Evidence Guild was thoroughly enjoyed by the student body. The particular reason for the interest shown at this lecture was that it was followed by an animated discussion among the student-body, thus offering them an opportunity to express individual opinions.

At the present time plans are being advanced for the establishment of a Sodality in the school to continue the splendid organization and student activity it afforded the sodalists in their former schools. When fully established, the new Sodality Unit will be affiliated with the National Sodality Headquarters in St. Louis. This new development of the school is expected to bring the students closer to a perfect life with Mary as their model and inspiration — or, as expressed in the Sodality A B C book, "To Jesus through Mary."

With all this effort put forth for the good of the student body, it is hoped that the pupils will be well established in the practice of their faith and moral conduct. Here at Central Catholic High School the Lord Himself is indeed "THE MASTER BUILDER."

History of Central Catholic

The seed which was later to grow into Central Catholic High School was first planted in 1858. It was in that year that Father Benoit engaged the Brothers of the Holy Cross to teach the boys of what is now the Cathedral School. The plant began to appear above the ground in 1884 when a business course was added to the grade school courses. Still more growth took place in the next few years when Latin and algebra were added to the list of subjects.

Bishop Alerding was the gardener who brought forth buds on the plant. He arranged to use Library Hall as a Catholic high school in 1909. On September 7, 1909, the first classes were taught in Fort Wayne's Central Catholic High School. From that day to this the Brothers of Holy Cross have guided the destinies of many of Fort Wayne's civic and professional leaders—from Father Girardot who graduated with the first class, to the members of the class of '58.

The State Board of Education commissioned Central Catholic as an accredited school in June, 1914. Ever since graduates have received recognition from many of the larger colleges throughout the Middle West, and their scholastic ranking has equalled or excelled that of other high schools.

The plant burst forth in glorious bloom on January 8, 1959, when the new, modern building, erected by Bishop Noll on the corner of Lewis and Clinton Streets at a cost of nearly a half million dollars, was dedicated.

The old building on Lewis and Calhoun streets still stands and over its door is a sign—"Central Catholic High School"—undoubtedly it will soon be razed, but through the years to come the work done in that building will long stand—a challenge and a goal for the students of the New Central Catholic.

C. C. H. S. Class of '39

Our Class of '39 entered Central Catholic in the year 1935 and comprised the largest Freshman class at the time with an enrollment of 96 students. As Freshmen, our class led the school for the entire year on the honor roll, by placing more students than any other class. Several members of the class joined the Echo staff and participated in extra-curricular affairs. Our class showed promise in athletics in George Bitler and James Boedecker.

During the school year of '36-'37 class election, James Zulliger was elected president, Richard Steigmeyer vice-president, Richard Scheele, secretary, and Robert Kearney, treasurer. The class placed ten players on the reserve basketball team and two students, Boedecker and Westrick on the varsity. Two boys of the Sophomore class, James McCarron and James Poinatte took part in the presentation of the dramatics club, "The Pair of Sixes." Kenneth Thompson won highest Scholastic Honors.

During the scholastic year of 1957-1958, our class election determined that James Griflith was president, Robert Kearney, vice-president, Robert Allen and Thomas Maher, secretary and treasurer, respectively. R. Contant won the oratorical contest and Robert Overmeyer won the medal for the highest scholastic average.

It was in this year that Central Catholic received a new coach, John Levicki, who rose to fame in two short years. This year was also important to the juniors as it was in October, 1958, that His Excellency broke ground for our new Alma Mater. Thereafter the school work was punctuated by sounds of construction as the work rapidly progressed. We became Seniors in June with a future in our new school to look forward to.

However, the building was not completed for the upper classes until January, 1959.

Meanwhile we held classes in Library Hall. When the new building was ready, it became a melting pot for classes from the high school, academies, and commercial schools. The Senior class is composed of 70 boys and 107 girls.

The officers of the Senior Class are: Paul Brandt, president; Marjorie Lennart, vice-president; Richard Steigmeyer, treasurer; and Mary Laughlin, secretary.

The class achieved its share of scholastic success as shown by the ten students who were members of the Four-Year Honor Roll. They are: T. Maher, R. Contant, L. Minnick, R. Kearney, K. Thompson, R. Overmeyer, L. Schowe, R. Mattes, J. Poinatte and Leo Daugherty.

The Senior Class was well represented on the football team while Bitler, Maxwell, Gorman and Boedecker represented the senior class on the State and National Championship Basketball Teams.

But now we Seniors are standing at the threshold of the new world, a business world. It is with some sadness, and yet with some joy, that we all turn our eyes towards Commencement.

History of St. Augustine Academy

Historians differ as to the exact date of the founding of St. Augustine Academy, some claiming the year 1845, others 1846. Be that as it may, we are certain of this—Rev. Julian Benoit in either of these years established the first Catholic school in the diocese of Fort Wayne and brought from St. Mary-of-the-Woods the Sisters of Providence to conduct it. He gave the Sisters a brick house, completely furnished, and a small meadow. This was the original Academy to which was added the second wing in 1885, when Father Benoit contributed $5,000 toward the improvements.

The small frame church, which occupied the site of the present Cathedral, was called St. Augustine's, so the Academy was given the same patron. Coincidentally the Sisters arrived in Fort Wayne on the eve of this patron's feast.

The first Superior was Sister Mary Magdalen, who, with two companions, opened the school in September, 1846. The enrollment numbered one hundred and fifty pupils, of whom fifteen were resident students.

In 1849 cholera broke out in the city, and the Academy was used temporarily as a hospital where the Sisters tended the victims. Only one Sister succumbed to the disease, though the scourge lasted for some time.

In 1859 the old St. Augustine Church was replaced by the present Cathedral and removed to Clinton Street, where it was destroyed by fire. The church bell, which had been a gift to Fr. Benoit from his native France, was then melted and later recast into two bells—one for the Academy and one for the Brothers' School.

The new wing was added in 1885. This enlargement of the building was necessary because of the increased enrollment. From 1846 until 1916 the grammar grades were housed in the Academy. In 1921 the Academy was formally certified as a Commissioned High School by the State Board of Education.

A two-year commercial course was introduced in the early '20's. This was discontinued in 1935 when the secretarial courses were merged into the four-year academic curriculum.

Throughout the years, St. Augustine Academy maintained the high standard of culture and scholastic training established by its founders, and has always pointed with pride to its splendid alumnae.

On January 3 of this year, the new Central Catholic High School was opened, and the Academy, which had seen ninety-two classes pass through its portals, ceased to exist as a separate unit. Its spirit lingers on, however, and the new school will continue to carry on and produce the same splendid results which the dear old Academy has produced in its long and glorious past. ## The S. A. A. Class of '39

The two words "work" and "play" ably sum up our activities for the past four years.

In our Freshman year we were an aggressive class, only to be pushed back by upperclassmen. Our first red-letter day came when we were initiated (or shall we say ruined?) by the playful Sophomores. After acting as hostesses to the eighth grade girls of the city, we were kept quite busy practicing "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," presented later at the Shrine Theatre. At the end of May, to top off a glorious year, we had a hilarious picnic at Oliver Lake.

The biggest event in our Sophomore year was the mild initiation given to the "freshies," mild because rough initiation was now taboo. Our doting mothers were also treated to a fashion show by their darlings of the sewing class. After a hectic ten months of cutting up fishies, froggies, and what-not in biology class, we passed with dignity into the ranks of the upperclassmen.

Much to our surprise and sorrow, when we came back to S. A. A. for our Junior year, we found that, because of its size, our class had to be divided into two home rooms. After inflating the class treasury, we were able to finance the annual Junior-Senior Banquet on St. Catherine's Day. The goods bequeathed by the Seniors in their Last Will and Testament were received with mingled emotions. We wrote "finis" to our Junior year with all the excitement attending the Senior Prom.

Having advanced in age and wisdom, we were now considered lofty Seniors. As our last class project in dear S. A. A., we gave a very successful tea dance, which was certainly worth the effort put into it.

On St. Catherine's Day we were entertained by the Juniors, who took us to the cinema and afterwards to the Community Center for refreshments. On Friday, December 23, we had our farewell party in our beloved Academy, thus officially closing the school by tolling our ancient bell. On January 3, we entered our new C. C. H. S., and soon held a class meeting for the election of officers. Eventually preparations for the Senior Prom were begun, using "When Day Is Done" as the theme.

So, just as we have finally learned our locker combinations, have begun to find our way around the building, we realize that the year draws to a close, leaving us with memories of pleasant times and of splendid friendships formed. We have the honor of being the first graduates of the new school; hence, we leave with the determination to keep intact the ideals which have been held out to us during our school life.

History of St. Catherine Academy

Saint Catherine Academy has harbored the deep-set traditions and the lofty ideals of almost three generations. Throughout its entire career, it has carried forward the standards of fidelity, humility, and spiritual ambition. From the day of its foundation, this old building has served the young Catholic girls of the city in that it afforded them not only a place of learning, but a place of learning to live. It has equipped them with a strong guard and a sense of righteousness which together have met and overcome their trials after graduation.

In September, 1895, Reverend Father Delaney opened the new St. Patrick's School. Within a few years, another building was needed for the girls who had completed the grade school course; hence, St. Catherine Academy was founded. In 1906 the first graduating class passed through its friendly doors. From that time on, the Academy has always been on a par with the finest high schools of the state of Indiana. It has borne its share of the city's education with pride and prestige and has produced girls prepared to follow the different vocations. As it stands today—an empty forsaken structure—it is not forgotten, but instead it is held as a treasured memory in the hearts of all of its graduates as well as in the esteem of many others. In that memory St. Catherine's foundation is that of a splendid work of God, and its pattern is one that bears all the fruits and glories of an omnipotent Architect's Masterpiece.

The S. C. A. Class of '39

Although the dear old Academy presented a welcoming and cheerful abode for our high school days, we entered the doors with excitement and awe. "Greenhorns, Freshies," we were called, but at the same time we received enough attention to counteract any abuse. Freshman Week was anticipated with dread, but experienced with enjoyment. As the year advanced, we became more serious and took our place at the top of the Mission supporters.

In all school drives, such as ticket-selling and patron drives, we were always top-notch or almost so. We considered our reception into the Sodality a very splendid affair—a tea, graced by candlelight and the soft accents of harp music. Very dimly I recall, too, a style show presented by the sewing class, of which some of our class were members. The entire year proved to us that we wanted to spend more happy days similar to these first ones.

As Sophomores we received less attention and more work. A Christmas bundle drive and a recurrence of the patron drive and skating party kept us busy. But we had our fun, too, as can be recalled from the weinie bake at Foster Park. At the end of the year we entertained the Freshman with a Latin play and the usual and essential refreshments.

Of course, in our second and third years, too, our girls always figured prominently in Sodality and Mission conventions and at the Sodality School of Catholic Action. As Juniors we acquired a very important feeling—and deservedly so! The whole year was filled with exciting times and new responsibilities—our own skating party, the banquet and program to honor the Seniors, oratorical contests, Christmas activities for the poor and the Missions, and lastly an invitation to the Senior Prom.

At last we reached the final year—our Senior Year! Our lovely banquet and entertainment from the Juniors, our class dinner, and our theatre party graced the year. It was then that we realized the glory of senior life. Our Sodality Christmas party and our class party brought much enjoyment to all. The fact that our spirit of "give" surpassed our spirit of "take" was shown in all our years together, but it was in our senior year that we topped all these activities for home charities and Missions. The girls also devoted much time to oratorical contests, glee club recitals, and other school affairs. So it was with that familiar Freshman fear mingled with sorrow that we said farewell to Saint Catherine Academy and came to the new Central Catholic High School. But, just during our brief stay here we have come to love it and to regard it as our very own. Indeed our class is a fortunate one! With such happiness and honor behind, we are now an important element in a school which strives for perfection and success in all that it undertakes.

Pigskin Review

1938 was a banner year for Central Catholic football as well as basketball. The Irish for the first time in history defeated their city rival—South Side, by a score of 15-7.

With but six lettermen returning prospects were, as usual, not so outstanding. These prospects were not enhanced by the outcome of the opening game, which Central Catholic dropped to Bryan, Ohio, 15-0. The Ohioers scored their two touchdowns in the second quarter, during which time they held the upper hand. C. C. recovered somewhat in the second half and had control of the ball on Bryan's 15-yard line as the gun sounded.

The Central game showed what the boys could do if they put their minds to it. Although the game was finally lost, we believe it to have been the best game the Irish played during the season. Playing without Dick Steigmeyer, regular guard, the players fought to the last. A possible tie was literally within the grasp of a Central Catholic end but for the finger of Talley. Central's fleet half-back, which barely tapped the ball out of the outstretched hands of "Red" Lerch just as he seemed to have it securely grasped for a touchdown. This misfortune ended the last of C. C.'s many second half threats. Score: 13-6.

CAPT. TONY COLONE

Perhaps it would be best to dismiss the North Side game without further ado. But for the sake of the record let us say that the Redskins went on the war path and massacred the Irish 51-0. Central Catholic could not match the precision and power of the North Siders and lost their only chance to score when an opening sleeper play failed to click.

The next two games produced nothing in the way of consolation to the Central Catholic rooters. Portland was tied 0-0, while the Garret game ended in a 6-6 deadlock. C. C. scored first in the opening quarter on a fifty-yard march with Bitler galloping over on an end run. On the last play of the third quarter Garret scored, evening things up and finishing the scoring for the day.

Going into the Decatur game, the Central Catholic team and supporters were still looking for their initial win of the season. They were not looking for it after the game. The Irish let out with a bang, the excess steam they had been saving since the season opened. In case you have forgotten, the score was 39-18. It would require too much of your valuable time to enumerate the many scoring opportunities. Suffice it to say that the Irish, led by Prough and Captain Colone, scored in every quarter. All players did well and prepared themselves for the South Side tussel, due the next week end.

The Central Catholic season reached its climax with the victory over South Side. With George Bitler, triple threat halfback, on the side-lines, the Irish outplayed the Archers much of the time. Both of the Central Catholic touchdowns came in the third quarter, one on a plunge by Prough and the other on a blocked punt recovered in the end zone by Stanczak.

The anti-climax was furnished by the final game of the year with Central Catholic of Hammond. The Irish struck first in this first Sunday high school football game ever played in Fort Wayne, on a pass, completed and run 40 yards for a touchdown. However, the smaller, but more aggressive, Hammond boys seemed to gain strength at the game progressed in the gathering dusk, which seemed to symbolize the ending of high school competition for the seniors on the squad. The score was 21-6.

So many creditable performances were turned in during the course of the season by the various members of the team, that it would be impossible to single out any special one for commendation. However, it is fitting that we congratulate Captain Colone for the excellent leadership he displayed. A word of thanks should also be given Brother Mel for his tireless efforts in behalf of the team, and to Coach Levicki for his excellent work.

The Historic School Bell

When the St. Augustine Church was destroyed by fire its large bell, cast in France in 1814 and presented to Reverend Father Benoit, was melted in the flames. The metal was later recast into two bells, one for St. Augustine Academy and the other for the Brothers' School.

Look at the Basketball Record!

The Irish started off the season with a very close victory over a strong Ossian quintet who was later to knock off South Side in the State Regionals. Following this victory were similar ones over Huntington Catholic 39-23, Peru 48-26, New Haven 24-19, Portland 47-30 and Elmhurst 30-24. In the New Haven game C. C. performed the notable task of holding their opponents scoreless in the second half.

The Irish lost their first game against Central in a wild battle, because of their inability to convert three throws. C. C. bounded back into the win column with a great win over the Catholic State Champs, Anderson, to raise the hopes of the Irish fans for the coming state Tournament. South Side's Archers were next, but they proved too tough for the purple and won a hard battle 44-34.

Again the Down Towners rebounded and spent their wrath on a stout-hearted team from Indianapolis—Cathedral. It was a very tight game, being decided only in the last minute when big Ed Stanczak poured in five points. It looked as if the Irish were going to have a win-a-game-lose-a-game season at this point, for again they were nosed out by the Decatur Commodores after giving up an 18 point lead in the last quarter.

Starting here the Gaelic Gang went on a nine-game winning streak only to be stopped in the last game of the season. In quick succession they bowled over Berne 42-16, North Side of Fort Wayne 29-18, Columbia City 47-40, Leo of Chicago 27-17, Concordia High 52-27, Garrett 41-33, Decatur 58-25, Butler 39-23 and Auburn 29-24. In running up this string of victories, the Purple accomplished three notable feats. First, they avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Decatur. Next, in the Columbia City game, C. C.'s star pivotman, Ed Stanczak set a new scoring record by dropping in 10 field goals and six foul shots for 26 points. Lastly, they broke a four-year-old jinx in city series competition and knocked off North Side of Fort Wayne. C. C. closed the regular season with a heart-breaking loss to their old rivals, New Haven. The Irish sorely missed their big center Stanczak in this game. He was hurt just after the Decatur game and was believed lost for the rest of the season, if not for the Tournament. C. C. played their first game in the beautiful new gymnasium on January 22 against Leo of Chicago before a packed house in which His Excellency, Bishop Noll threw up the first ball.

State Catholic Tournament

The Irish now turned their efforts to the State Catholic tournament which was to be held in Fort Wayne on February 24, 25, and 26. There were high hopes for success as C. C. had beaten four of the participating teams. Going into the first game, however, the Purple were not over confident because of the further injury of Ed Stanczak's knee.

Fort Wayne drew the defending champs, Anderson, for their first game. The Irish must have been inspired in this game, for they gave the champs a terrific beating 65-34. Playing the best game of the year, the boys bombarded the net from all angles and never gave the Gaels a chance. Their next foe was the formidable Decatur Commies and they proved to be almost too much for the Irish. The Purple won only by the scant margin of one point, 18-17, to move into the championship game against another former victim, Cathedral of Indianapolis. The Irish kept right on going into the State Championship by smothering the Fighting Irish from the Capitol City by the score of 51-34. Again hitting the stride they had exhibited against Anderson, C. C. whipped the Indianapolis boys fairly easily to cop the state crown for the first time in the history of Central Catholic. It was indeed a sweet victory and the end of a long, hard trail which had taken them past more than a score of games but it was not the end of their labors for they now pointed for the National Tournament in Chicago.

National Catholic Tournament

When the Irish left for Chicago, they had the sincere backing of the whole city and they took quite a few fans with them to the Windy City. In their first game, they played the state champs of West Virginia, Central Catholic of Wheeling. They swept past this team by the score of 41-24 and next took on Southeast Catholic of Philadelphia whom they also tramped on 46-37. By this time the Irish were into the quarter finals and, keeping in stride, beat down St. Basil's of Pittsburgh 45-26. Great interest was aroused in Fort Wayne by this time and a steady stream of fans kept heading for Chicago where the Purple entered the finals by rolling over St. George of Evanston, Illinois, 47-51. At the final game there were hundreds of Fort Wayne fans at Loyola gym and most of the other spectators were also cheering for the Hoosiers. The final game proved to be a thriller and it was not decided who would win until late in the last quarter. C. C. came out on top to the tune of 44-37 and were crowned National Catholic Champions.

The members of the team were as follows: Captain Jim Boedeker—All State Guard: Jim was not the sensational type of ball player, but when brains, coolheadedness and a steady influence were needed Jim was always there to lead his team to victory.

George Bitler—Doctor King Sportsmanship trophy: A great football as well as basketball player and a boy who played hard and well. When things got rough and tough, George was always in there scrapping with the best of them.

Gene Maxwell—Loyola Hall of Fame: Big and capable of handling himself in any kind of a game, Gene was a stalwart of defense and offense. He did a great job of filling in at center during the state tournament and proved himself able to answer the call at the center post very well. He was chosen to the Hall of Fame by Loyola students as the best all around player in the Chicago tournament.

Ed Gorman—All State Forward: Small, but possessing a superabundance of speed, Ed played a consistent type of ball all year long. He rose to great heights during state only to have his foot injured during the National Tournament.

Bobby Heiny—All State Forward: Though only a sophomore, Bobby is one of the best players we have seen in a long time. He needs no further experience for he handles himself as though he had been playing championship ball all of his life.

Ed Stanczak—All National Center: A truly great center, "Stan" bore the brunt of the scoring attack all through the regular season until he was hurt. Had he been able to play the whole season he certainly would have scored over 200 points. He came back in fine style in the Nationals and once again became the high scorer of the team.

Ed Dehner and Ed Klotz—The shock troops: When things were slowing down or the team was off form, these two scrappy juniors were always ready to go in and start a rally. In more than one game they went into start a much needed rally and to send the team once more on to a victory.

John Falvy and Nick Leto—Because of steady improvement throughout the season these two boys were brought up to varsity competition. Although they did not play at the Nationals, they were taken along in recognition of their steady improvement. Look for these two in years to come.

Up to this time nothing has been said about the one person who was in a large measure responsible for the success of Central Catholic in the past year. He was the one who had to make all the important decisions and he alone built the great Irish squad. Of course the man we speak of is John Levicki. Only in his second year of coaching, John did a marvelous job and created a team which had everything a truly great team should have. He worked long and hard on this team and richly deserves the praise which he has been receiving since the end of the season.

This year has surely been a great one for the Irish. They compiled the grand total of 17 regular season wins with four defeats, three state wins and no defeats, and five national wins with no defeats for a total of 25 wins and 4 defeats. In that time they outscored their opponents 11 to 8, getting 1184 points to their foes 824. They proved to be a high powered offensive team for they scored well over a point a minute averaging 40.8 points a game.

The Girls' Athletic Association of Central Catholic High School is a branch of the National organization for the promotion of interest in physical education for girls. It aims also to cultivate a love of competitive sports and fair play.

Rather than dissolve the constitutions of the two Academies the organizations have been consolidated, and the G. A. A. of the new school has been progressing with rapid strides under the tutelage of its Moderator, Sister St. Vincent.

The G. A. A. became active immediately following our transfer into the new school in January. With the election of officers at this time, Dolores Ryan became president, Rita Wagner, vice-president, Marjorie Suter, secretary, and Helen Hofer, treasurer, while Ruth Baker was retained as point secretary.

The point system was defined and determined as follows: Besides the hundred points allotted each year for one sport, a player is allowed a number of points for her position on a G. A. A. team. These teams are chosen by the respective chairman of each sport. The system is on a four-point-per-hour basis. The awards for points are: The school monogram—a large "C" (purple chenille)—for 2000 points, a bronze medal for 1500 points, a class numeral for 800 points, and a felt triangle for 500 points. There are at present twenty-six lettermen from this graduating class. The G. A. A. sport sweater is of a yellow-gold.

Basketball, headed by Mary Laughlin, its chairman, took first place in the line of interest and enthusiasm. Each class had first and second teams in readiness for the interclass tournament. In the tourney, the Seniors defeated the Juniors, while the Sophomores defeated the Freshmen. Finally, with the defeat of the Sophomores, the Seniors were the high school champions. The senior champions are: Sue Cutter, Mary Laughlin, Loretta Deininger, Margaret Reilman, Rose K. Schenkel, Rita Wagner, Helen Rauner, Kathleen Burrell, Helen Shaffer, and Rita Clemmer.

For volleyball, which only had a short season, Helen Rauner was chairman and the first team was the following: Mary Ann Allgeier, Peggy O'Connor, Helen Rauner, Margaret Reilman, and Rose Kathleen Schenkel.

Along with these sports bowling struggled for a place. As its enthusiasts were few, the season was cut to five weeks. But bowling has a future, according to the chairman, Marjorie Lennart, who hopes her successor can bring out a twelve-week season and a C. C. Bowling League.

Ping-pong was the shortest lived of the lively. Fifteen girls participated in the three-round tourney begun in May. Dean O'Rourke, chairman, reports Kay Ottenweller the victor in the final match.

Swimming began on Thursday, February 16, and ended with a swimming meet Tuesday, May 9. This meet was supervised by Miss J. Heighway, swimming instructor of the Catholic Community Center. Mary DeWald, Mary Zollinger, Mary Jane McCarthy, Eleanor Bailly, Margaret Reilman, Rita Clemmer, Rita Sordelet, and Dorothy Shull captured the prizes at the swimming meet. Louise Bir was chairman of this sport.

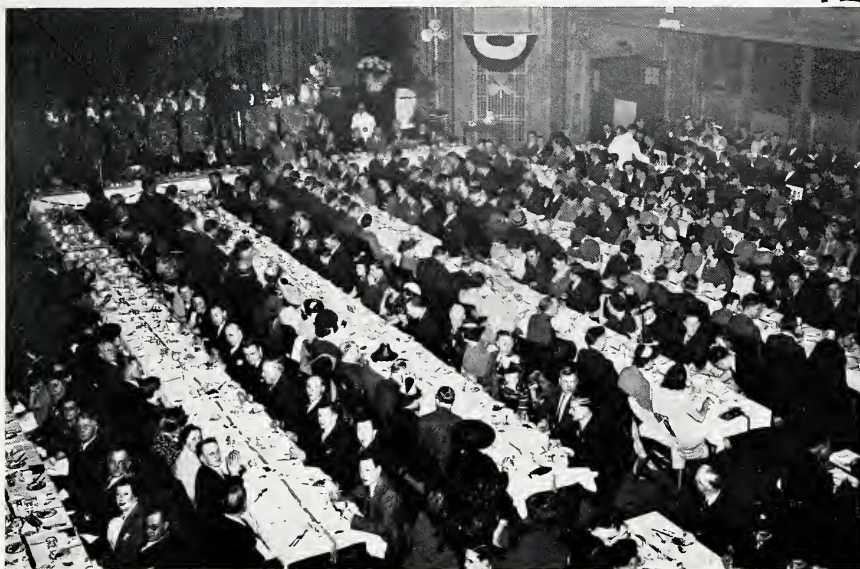

Mary Lou Coffee, chairman of tennis activities, announced the tournament for the near future. Tuesday and Thursday are the practice days for the sixty-four who signed for the G. A. A. tennis tourney.

Akin to tennis is the infant sport of badminton. Being a comparatively new game, it has not the following that it deserves; it is hoped, however, that it will grow under the guidance and stimulus of the Athletic Association. No matches have been scheduled. Adrienne Clark is its chairman.

The twenty devotees of soft ball gather in the old play ground of the Cathedral School behind St. Augustine's Academy, where many used to scamper about as first and second graders a decade ago. Helen Shaffer is the chairman; she promises a selective team by the end of the season.

Archery, like hadminton, is a new undertaking of this newly enlarged G. A. A. Since the association is unable to supply equipment for this pastime the enrollment is small. Ruth Baker serves as chairman.
